day evening.

The soda water fountain and the beer keg have been subjected to a constant drain during the week, owing to the excessive heat weather.

The electric wires in the house being built for J. P. Scherff on Fremont Street were cut in several places a few days since by some miscreants.

The Essex County Building and Loan association will meet next Tuesday evening at Dodd's Hall, Glenwood Avenue. There will be money to loan.

The County Board of Assessors will meet in the Court House in Newark on Monday, July 25, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, to fix the tax rate for the year.

Surveyor Olmstead is making a profile map of Watsessing Avenue preparatory to the macadamizing of that street.

Miss Annie Mullinix left on Thursday for Franklin, Delaware County, N. Y., where she will spend several weeks.

The defeat of the Stars by the Bloomfield Club last Saturday was a great disappointment to the Watsessing sporting fraternity.

A cabinet meeting of the Epworth League of the Watsessing M. E. Church

It has been suggested that a fire-alarm

THE BLOOMFIELD CITIZEN: BLOOMFIELD, N. J., JULY 16, 1892.

box be placed at Brookdale, and that the Truck Company be transformed into a bucket brigade when called to do fire duty in that section of town.

Nearly all the business men in town have signed a paper designating August 9 as "business men's holiday." This will give the employees an opportunity to go on the Essex excursion.

The auction sale of building lots at the Draper farm, Washington Avenue and Orange Road, last Saturday was very successful. About thirty lots were sold and good prices realized.

A hearing in the case of William C. La-Baugh vs. George W. Frerar for two hundred dollars damage to his horse, which was to have been tried before Justice Post on Thursday, was postponed for one week.

A well-known citizen who attended the circus on Thursday afternoon came out disgusted, and said that he had often seen a better show given as a premium on a glass of beer down at Coney Island.

John Lancaster, an employee of E. H. Davy's truck board factory, had a narrow escape from serious injury last Saturday. One of the knives in the cutting-machine at which he was working broke, striking Lancaster on the arm.

There is a mystery about the alarm of fire given from box 36 on Tuesday night. Members of Active Hose Company declare it was a hoax. Members of the Truck Company deny this and cite facts to prove that the alarm was a bona-fide one.

The Montclair Town Committee will borrow money from the Bank of Montclair to pay the bill for the union outlet sewer construction, recently presented by the city of Orange. The money is borrowed in anticipation of the issuing of sewer bonds.

Rumors having been current on the street that Charles Murray & Son had sold out to the Bloomfield Coal and Supply Company, Mr. Murray desires to announce an absolute contradiction. There has been no proposition entertained by the firm in regard to selling out.

Next Thursday evening the members of Excelsior Lodge, K. of H., will pay a fraternal visit to Progress Lodge of Franklin. Those who contemplate going will meet at Bro. Dawkins's store at 7 o'clock. A good time is expected, as the visit will be similar to an old-fashioned surprise party. Members of the order are cordially invited.

The S. Griffith Association, composed of the mechanics in the employ of the Morris & Essex Division of the D. L. & W. R. R., will have an excursion to Lake Hopatcong on August 18. A regatta on the lake, in which a number of well-known oarsmen will enter, will be one of the features of the excursion. Numerous valuable prizes will be competed for.

The Rev. James P. Faucon, former rector of St. Paul's P. E. Church, occupied the pulpit of that church last Sunday morning and evening. There was a good attendance at both services, and Mr. Faucon was warmly greeted by his former parishioners.

One of the busiest men in town is Station Agent Atherton of the Prospect Street depot. Mr. Atherton is ticket agent, telegraph operator, express agent and freight agent. The increased summer traffic has given him a large number of trunks of Saratoga dimensions to wrestle with.

The Chicago and Atlanta of the "White Squadron" and the U. S. man-of-war New Hampshire will be at Peeksill, opposite Iona Island, on the day of the Watsessing M. E. Sunday-school excursion to the latter place. The excursionists will probably enjoy the pleasure of seeing a fine naval display and hearing some heavy cannonading. As this was not in the original programme of the excursion, there should be a slight increase in the sale of tickets.

The Olympic Bowling Club had a most enjoyable outing at Brighton Beach by way of the Iron Pier on Wednesday. All the sights were taken in, and they were taken in by the beautiful ocean. The only episode of a startling nature was when two of the ladies became confused and were lost on the iron pier and became quite desperate in their endeavors to find their way off, when some of the officials found them just as the electric lights were being put out and assisted them in finding their husbands.

The club intends to make several short trips through the warm weather, as all the members had such a jolly time and were so thoroughly pleased with the success and pleasure derived from the success.
